Altar panels

Future dates for helping with the altar panels are 12th June, 10th July and 14th August, all Mondays all 7.30pm at St Martin's. All are welcome to come.

John's move

In case you missed the announcement last week, John will be leaving St Martin's at the beginning of September, to take up the position of Provost at St Mary's Cathedral, Palmerston Place.

Sharing Secrets Festival

As part of this year's Sharing Secrets Festival, based in Dalry School, SMCRC are hosting a cooking workshop run by Food Sharing Edinburgh. 5 pupils are coming along, but there is space for 3 adults who would like to join in too. Please let John know if you would be interested.

Thursday 15th June 11am-1pm

Eco-Congregation 2nd Award

St Martin's was awarded its 2nd Eco-congregation award earlier this year. We are delighted that Gavin Corbett (local Green Councillor) will be unveiling the plaque at 12pm on Sunday 18th June. The unveiling will be followed by a picnic in Murieston Park for all who would like to come along.

Pentecost

Sunday 4th June 2017

Preacher: David Robinson

President: David Warnes

Living out faith in our community through prayer, reflection and action

New Testament Reading: Acts 2.1-21

read by Penny Allen

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, 'Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power.' All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, 'What does this mean?' But others sneered and said, 'They are filled with new wine.'

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: ‘Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o’clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: “In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist.

The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord’s great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.”

Epistle: 1 Corinthians 12.3b-13

No one can say ‘Jesus is Lord’ except by the Holy Spirit.

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of services, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who activates all of them in everyone. To each is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the common good. To one is given through the Spirit the utterance of wisdom, and to another the utterance of knowledge according to the same Spirit, to another faith by the same Spirit, to another gifts of healing by the one Spirit, to another the working of miracles, to another prophecy, to another the discernment of spirits, to another various kinds of tongues, to another the interpretation of tongues. All these are activated by one and the same Spirit, who allots to each one individually just as the Spirit chooses.

For just as the body is one and has many members, and all the members of the body, though many, are one body, so it is with Christ. For in the one Spirit we were all baptized into one body—Jews or Greeks, slaves or free—and we were all made to drink of one Spirit.

Gospel: John 20.19-23

read by Maya Conway

It was evening on that day, the first day of the week, and the doors of the house where the disciples had met were locked for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood among them and said, "Peace be with you." After he said this, he showed them his hands and his side. Then the disciples rejoiced when they saw the Lord. Jesus said to them again, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so I send you." When he had said this, he breathed on them and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. If you forgive the sins of any, they are forgiven them; if you retain the sins of any, they are retained."

Matthew 28.16-20

It is lovely to welcome back our preacher, Rev David Robinson today. And our thanks too to Jo Allen for playing the organ.

G in the Park

The Gorgie Dalry festival now known as ‘G in the Park’ is on the 10th June, so please do keep the date free. We will be running our café in the corner as well as a home baking stall. Helpers are needed to set up and clear up, as well as home baking and making filled rolls. Please fill out the rota at the back of church if you are able to help.

Fiona and Richard would like to invite you all to lunch next Sunday (11th June) after the baptism of their son, Joshua James (Kate & Stuart’s grandson). The buffet lunch will be in the downstairs hall. You do not need to bring anything, just yourselves!
