

Terms and Conditions

1. Entry for exhibits is free.
2. It is the exhibitor's responsibility to insure their work outside their own home. Although all due care will be taken, St. Martin's cannot accept any responsibility for damage or loss.
3. Paintings, artistic photography, wood turning, silver craft, ceramics, patchwork & much more can be offered for sale or display.
4. All items for display must be suitably framed & strung ready for display. Please also ensure that a note of title, artist & price are securely attached to the rear of your exhibits.
5. Those not presented suitably will not be displayed. Clip frames will not be accepted. If in doubt, please ask.
6. Only pottery, silver jewellery, sculpture or glassware can be accepted for table display or sale.
7. The final date for notification of entry is 31st July. Details of your exhibits must be presented with exhibits on delivery date, Friday 19th August. However it does help greatly to know what is being exhibited earlier than this if possible to allow me to type up the catalogue.
8. Delivery date for exhibits is Friday 19th August between 4.00pm & 7.30pm to enable planning and cataloguing. The enclosed form must be completed and handed in when the exhibits are delivered to the church.
9. Collection date of exhibits is Saturday 3rd September between 1.00pm & 3.00pm. Other arrangements may be possible in special circumstances and by prior agreement. Any items which are unclaimed (unless agreed beforehand) by 30 September will be disposed of as the church sees fit.
10. 20% of all sales will be retained by St Martin's. The difference will be paid to you after completion of financial records for the show.
11. We reserve the right not to display any item that is not presented suitably or if there is insufficient space.
